Broward County students – You must earn volunteer service hours in order to graduate. Broward County Government offers many opportunities to obtain volunteer service hours while helping our community. Inside this booklet, you will find ways to volunteer with the County – from Parks to Libraries, to our Airport and more.

Prior to seeing a location to accomplish your volunteer service hours, you MUST obtain a Student Volunteer Service Application and Approval Form, or forms from your school's Volunteer Service Program Coordinator. You may also use the form in the back of this brochure and follow the instructions for completion. BE SURE TO COMPLETE THE FORM BEFORE YOU SEEK A LOCATION TO PERFORM YOUR VOLUNTEER SERVICE HOURS, WHETHER IN BROWARD COUNTY GOVERNMENT OR ELSEWHERE.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Beau Van". The signature is stylized with a large, looped initial "B" and a trailing flourish.

Libraries:

Broward County Libraries has many exciting ways to volunteer – including right at your local branch. Our libraries always need passionate young people to help with daily operations and community outreach. At your nearest library you can:

- Stock shelves, locate books – especially in the Youth Services section.
- Be a Program Assistant – Assist children with arts and crafts.
- Participate in “Reading Buddies” – Assist students who are developing their reading skills.
- Assist in one day events like the amazing ArtLit Book Fest, First Friday and South Florida Book Festival
- Lend a hand to a librarian by assisting in daily routine library tasks:

Our libraries offer so many great ways to help our community and have fun while earning service hours. Most volunteer shifts are between two and four hours long and schedules are flexible. If you are interested in volunteering, email libraryvolunteers@broward.org or call 954-357-7444.

Animal Care:

Are you a dog person or a cat person? At Broward County Animal Care and Adoption, we have room for both! You can earn service hours by fostering a dog or cat. Make some new friends at Animal Care and earn hours just for taking care of a furry friend.

- With staff supervision you may earn up to 40 hours of volunteer service time by fostering for two weeks.
- Volunteer at a shelter for numerous duties or participate in an animal of-site event.
- Participating in this type of service can be a great time for you while helping some loving pets in need.

There are many other ways to volunteer with Broward County Animal Care. Find out more at animalcarevolunteer@broward.org or call 954-359-1313.

Public Works:

Want to get hands-on with the services that make everything from brushing your teeth to driving down the street possible? Volunteer with Broward County Public Works and find out more about how we keep things running, like:

- You may volunteer to “ride along” to make road repairs.
- Be part of a tour to visit a wastewater treatment plant and learn some of its inner-workings and how it functions.
- Attend and assist in community meetings concerning vehicular traffic problems and how they may be solved.
- Spend a day with civil engineers and get hands-on experience from folks who are expert in their STEM fields.

This is your chance to learn from the experts in these STEM fields and get hands-on with some really exciting activities. If you would like to learn more, contact 954-357-6410.

Citizen Scientist:

You can achieve some of your volunteer service hours and at the same time protect your future and the future of Broward County by leading the fight against climate change. Broward County needs your volunteer hours to assist in the following tasks:

- Measure King Tide water levels
- Take photos of flooding and seawalls in your community
- Assist in conducting experiments at environmental events

If you are interested in becoming a Citizen Scientist, please email resilience@broward.org, or call 954-519-1450.

Small Business:

Do you want to get an early start in business? Now you can learn about the business world and develop your skills by volunteering in a fast-paced environment with Broward County's Office of Economic and Small Business Development. Beside giving you volunteer service hours, this will also introduce you to the area of small business and assist you to develop skills necessary for future entry into this area of the business world.

- Volunteer for major signature events, like the Broward Business and Beyond Conference, or the Florida International Trade and Cultural Expo, which brings leaders from many countries to Broward to discuss economic opportunities.

This is your chance to learn about business from the top professionals and leaders across many industries. If you want to learn more, call 954-357-6400 for more information.

Parks:

Do you love going to the park? Broward County Parks Division has many exciting ways to get involved with fun outdoors activities in and around nature. Get experience and make a difference at one of our many parks or nature centers. The VIP Program, short for “Volunteers Improving Parks” provides excellent opportunities not just for individuals but also for neighborhood organizations as well as businesses to become directly involved in maintaining and improving our parks, landscaped areas, greenways, and recreational facilities to help build community spirit and a sense of civic pride and responsibility. Park staff are always available to offer training, supervision, and any other resources necessary for both individuals and groups willing to contribute. Here is some of what’s possible:

- Assist Park Staff with supervised sports and other athletic activities.
- Perform various duties in Nature Centers.
- Assist in the instruction of gymnastics.
- Assist with park tours.
- Assist in setting up bike and nature trails.
- Help in park and waterway and beach cleanups.

There is an opportunity in our Parks for whatever type of adventure you are seeking. So what are you waiting for? Reach out to 954 357-5280 or jpipoly@broward.org to learn more!

Aviation:

Your community service experience can fly high with Broward County Aviation! Broward's Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport is the fastest growing large hub airport in the country – and they can always use help from students like you to make this experience better for all the people visiting our area.

- Serve as part of “Airport Ambassador Program” (must be 16 years of age or older). Perform various duties as may become necessary to assist airport employees in their daily tasks.
- Assist in staffing of Information Booths and answer questions about airport services available to travelers, and give direction assistance.
- Volunteering at FLL may present career style training for future employment with airport facilities.

For information about the program, call the Airport Volunteer Coordinator at 954-359-2589 or email VolunteerFLL@broward.org.

Emergency

Volunteer opportunities abound in Broward County, and at no time is the need for volunteers greater than during a recovery from a hurricane or other emergency. These efforts are coordinated through Emergency Support Function #15 (ESF15), Volunteers and Donated Goods, one of many mechanisms in place that organizes and provides assistance to the Broward Emergency Response Team (BERT) during times of disaster. ESF15 coordinates and facilitates the most effective and efficient use of affiliated and spontaneous volunteers, monetary donations, and goods during all phases of disaster management. Broward County Emergency Management Division encourages residents who are interested in becoming a volunteer in the aftermath of a storm or other emergency, to contact one of these County emergency response partners by calling 954-722-6400.

SKYWARN is a nationwide volunteer network of weatherspotters who report observations of significant weather and resulting damage from severe weather events to the National Weather Service. The National Weather Service then sends alerts to the public through television, radio, marine and weather radios, public safety agencies and other information sources. Since the National Weather Service instituted the SKYWARN program, there has been a significant decrease in deaths due to tornadoes and other severe weather. SKYWARN offers free training classes to interested volunteers, who include amateur radio operators, Red Cross volunteers, firefighters, students and others who want to serve. For more information, send an email n4hnp@comcast.net.
