

Announcing a Special
Sustainability Stewards Workshop
Connecting Artists and Planners

*Engage Communities
Communicate Vision
Create Places that Inspire*

ACT I – CONTEXT (11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.)

Welcome from Co-hosts

Jill Horwitz, Broward County Environmental Planning and Community Resilience Division
Doug McCraw, FATVillage Arts District

Impact of the Arts in the Community

Jody Horne Leshinsky, Assistant Director, Broward Cultural Division
Leslie Fordham, Administrator, Broward County Public Art & Design Program

Public Art and Community Engagement

Xavier Cortada, FIU College of Architecture + The Arts Artist-in-Residence

Merging of Art, Ecology, and Infrastructure

Jason Bregman, Michael Singer Studios

“Off the Canvas” School Program

Alissa Alfonso and Manon Wiese, Co-creators and local artists

Public Space - Public Art

Henning Haupt, PhD, Assistant Professor of Architecture FAU, 3rd Ave Artist

(30 minute break – light lunch provided)

ACT II – EXPERIENCE (1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.)

Showcase Case Study and Tour FATVillage Arts District

Doug McCraw and head curators, Leah Brown and Peter Symons

ACT III - CREATE (2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.)

Why Dialogue is Important

Jill Weisberg, Schrift & Farbe Design Group, Downtown Hollywood Mural Project

Open Discussion

Lead by Galen Treuer - University of Miami Doctoral Student in environmental science and policy
& Co-founder Live Action Set theater company

Face-to-Face

Participants workshop ideas for spaces, places, plans and projects: Planners and Artists pair off