

Professional Profile - Rosalyn Crawford Frazier, B.S

Rosalyn Crawford Frazier, B.S. is the Chief Executive Officer of Broward Community & Family Health Center (BCFHC). She oversees the successful operations of four clinical practice sites and one dental site located in Broward County, Florida. With over 18 years of service as a primary care provider for the underserved, uninsured and insured, BCFHC provides comprehensive medical, behavioral and dental health services across all lifecycles, helping to increase access to care and reducing health disparities in Broward County. The center's mission is "to provide accessible, comprehensive, high quality primary care services to all persons with dignity and respect."

Ms. Frazier received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from DePaul University (Chicago, Illinois), a certification in Financial Management and Executive Development from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill and a certification in Health Care Executive Management from the University of California/Los Angeles. She is also an adjunct professor at Nova Southeastern University for its Master of Public Health Program.

As an executive, she has over 25 years of experience in health care management in the areas of new business development, grant writing, financial management, physician recruitment, and managed care contracting for non-profit/for-profit health organizations. Ms. Frazier has additional experience in management service organization (MSO) contracting and physician billing/academic practice plan management in a university medical center environment.