

COMMUNITY TRANSPORTATION INITIATIVE

CTI . . . a community private/public partnership promoting responsible clean air transportation choices . . .

2006 ETHANOL ROUNDTABLE

2006 ETHANOL ROUNDTABLE

September 14, 2006 -South Florida Regional Planning Council
1:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Roundtable Moderator: Steve Reich, Program Director University of South Florida Center for Urban Transportation Research – Transportation Program Economic Evaluation and Analysis

I. *Introductions & Acknowledgements

Roundtable Moderator

II. *From Feedstocks to Fuel Tanks

Ethanol Basics: The Many Feedstocks of Ethanol

The Case for Florida

The Florida Farm to Fuel Initiative

Matthew Curran, PhD, Chief Bureau of Petroleum Inspection

Florida Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services

III. *Tampa Bay Area Ethanol Consortium – A Demonstration Facility for the Commercialization of Florida Biomass Feedstocks for Ethanol Production

Finding the Best Florida Feedstocks: What Shows Promise? What Conditions Are Needed? What Is Realistic?

Kieran Jennings, JD; CPA Siegel, Siegel Johnson & Jennings

Board Member Tampa Bay Area Ethanol Consortium

RE-FUELING BREAK

RE-FUELING BREAK

RE-FUELING BREAK

IV. *After Production: The State's Role in Fuel Implementation, Distribution & Oversight

Dr. Matthew Curran

V. *The Story Behind Florida's First Ethanol Production Plant: US EnviroFuels

Bradley Krohn, PhD, President & Managing Partner United States EnviroFuels, LLC (via speaker phone)

VI. *Ethanol & The Environment: Out of Date Facts or Environmental Challenges?

Bruce Offord, SE District Air Resources Environmental Consultant Florida Department of Environmental Protection

VII Roundtable Round-Up: Summary Points

Moderator, All Presenters