

Broward Cultural Division Investments 2008-2009

Organization Name	Total Investment	Project Title
Cultural Diversity Program
Brazilian Voices, Inc.	$22,100	A season of Brazilian cultural concerts, From Brazil to the World, Voices' 2009 program and the production of a new studio recorded CD.
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Committee, Inc.	$22,100	Sounds of Freedom Music Series will feature a series of three (3) concerts to take place during the month of February.
Friends of the Broward County African-American Research Library and Cultural Center	$22,100	A season of six events at the African-American Research Library and Cultural Center, Inc.
Jubilee Dance Theatre, Inc.	$22,100	A three-day festival consisting of master classes, performances, panel discussions and an audition preparedness workshop by local and nationally acclaimed teachers and choreographers.
Old Dillard Foundation, Inc.	$22,100	A series of interpretive and fine arts exhibits by South Florida's artist and muralist, Charles Mills.
Polynesian Culture Association, Inc.	$22,100	To further develop and expand a portable mini-museum initiated during 2007-2008; Also provides reasonable artist fee support for local and guest artists who will serve as curators of the mini-museum, lead community workshops and a summer dance series.
Tranzendance Dance Productions, Inc.	$22,100	A modern dance performance celebrating the lives of the most influential Hispanic artists in history: composer Manuel De Falla, artist Salvador Dali and writer Federico Garcia Lorca.
Total Cultural Diversity Program	$154,700
Cultural Tourism
ArtServe, Inc.	$24,500	A comprehensive online calendar of arts and cultural events, ARTScalendar.com.
Broward Caribbean Carnival, Inc.	$23,900	To support the 6th year of the annual Broward Caribbean Carnival.
The Broward County Film Society, Inc.	$38,900	The 23rd Annual Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival beginning October 17 through November 9, 2008.
City of Lauderhill, FL	$22,700	FlavorFest, an annual two-day festival to take place in the new Central Broward Regional Park.

Hollywood Art and Culture Center, Inc.	$42,900	To produce a geographically specific branded promotional magazine/directory of presenters and events.
City of Hollywood, FL	$42,900	The City of Hollywood joins with the Hollywood Art and Culture Center on a marketing collaborative project.
Miami City Ballet, Inc.	$35,600	Five performances of George Balanchine's The Nutcracker™, performed at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts December 12-14, 2008.
Museum of Discovery & Science, Inc.	$36,800	The Interactive Exhibition, a tourist driven project that includes the exhibit, a robotics competition and a host of guest speakers, programs and family-friendly activities.
Performing Arts Center Authority	$59,100	The Broward Center for the Performing Arts as the lead applicant is working with Concert Association of Florida, Inc., and Museum of Art, Inc., Stranahan House, Inc., The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc., and The Opera Guild, Inc. on the Riverwalk Arts and Entertainment District, a marketing collaborative.
Concert Association of Florida, Inc.	$54,700	The Broward Center for the Performing Arts as the lead applicant is working with Concert Association of Florida, Inc., and Museum of Art, Inc., Stranahan House, Inc., The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc., and The Opera Guild, Inc. on the Riverwalk Arts and Entertainment District, a marketing collaborative.
Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc.	$21,000	The Broward Center for the Performing Arts as the lead applicant is working with Concert Association of Florida, Inc., and Museum of Art, Inc., Stranahan House, Inc., The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc., and The Opera Guild, Inc. on the Riverwalk Arts and Entertainment District, a marketing collaborative.
Museum of Art Fort Lauderdale, Nova Southeaste	$46,300	The Broward Center for the Performing Arts as the lead applicant is working with Concert Association of Florida, Inc., and Museum of Art, Inc., Stranahan House, Inc., The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc., and The Opera Guild, Inc. on the Riverwalk Arts and Entertainment District, a marketing collaborative.

Opera Guild, Inc. of Fort Lauderdale	$46,300	The Broward Center for the Performing Arts as the lead applicant is working with Concert Association of Florida, Inc., and Museum of Art, Inc., Stranahan House, Inc., The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc., and The Opera Guild, Inc. on the Riverwalk Arts and Entertainment District, a marketing collaborative.
Stranahan House, Inc.	$17,800	The Broward Center for the Performing Arts as the lead applicant is working with Concert Association of Florida, Inc., and Museum of Art, Inc., Stranahan House, Inc., The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc., and The Opera Guild, Inc. on the Riverwalk Arts and Entertainment District, a marketing collaborative.
Symphony of the Americas, Inc.	$26,800	Symphony of the Americas will present a special concert event during Hispanic (October 2008), and Summerfest 2009.
Young At Art of Broward, Inc.	$34,800	Young At Art Children's Museum will present the national exhibition Oh Seuss! Off to Great Places , for a seven-month venue in Broward County.
Total Cultural Tourism Investment	$575,000

Design Arts

City of Lauderdale Lakes	$10,000	To assist with the creation of regional, or multi-municipality community pre-design cultural plan. The city will collaborate with City of Lauderdale Lakes and Broward Center for the Performing Arts for development of a Cultural Corridor Cultural Plan.
City of Lauderdale Lakes	$10,000	To assist with the creation of regional, or multi-municipality community pre-design cultural plan. The city will collaborate with City of Lauderdale Lakes and Broward Center for the Performing Arts for development of a Cultural Corridor Cultural Plan.
City of Lauderdale Lakes	$10,000	To assist with the creation of regional, or multi-municipality community pre-design cultural plan. The Broward Center for the Performing Arts will collaborate with the City of Lauderdale Lakes and Broward Center for the Performing Arts for development of a Cultural Corridor Cultural Plan.
Performing Arts Center Authority	$10,000
Total Design Arts	$30,000

Education and Community Development

City of Hallandale Beach	$21,200	This after-school project will provide classes at five locations.
City of Hollywood, FL	$23,300	City of Hollywood Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Arts - Lively Arts Summer Camp Program.

City of Lauderdale Lakes	$23,400	This multi-year will provide classes at four City of Lauderdale Lakes locations.
City of Pembroke Pines	$20,800.00	This summer project will provide two four-week sessions in theater.
Susan Feldman	$22,700	This multi-year project will provide classes at the Broward Outreach Center.
Florida's Singing Sons, Inc.	$24,400	This multi-year after school and weekend program will provide vocal and performance classes at various locations throughout Broward County.
Darby Hayes	$25,300	This multi year after-school project will provide classes at the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County.
Hollywood Art and Culture Center, Inc.	$21,000	This single year after-school project will provide visual arts classes at the ArtsPark at Young Circle and includes an exhibition of student products.
Debra Lombard	$21,400	This multi-year project will provide all aspects of theater to those with physical and developmental disabilities.
Carol Moore	$24,200	This multi-year project will provide visual arts classes.
Museum of Art Fort Lauderdale, Nova Southeaste	$20,400	This summer program will teach musical theatre and set design at the Museum of Art. Three two-week sessions will be offered.
Mimi Schultz	$25,700	This multi-year 30-week project provides classes at New River Middle School for at-risk teens.
Nilda Comas	$15,500	This year-long project will teach still-life painting, charcoal drawing, sculpting, and shadow puppetry at the Broward County Central Homeless Assistance Center and the Legacy Art Studio.
Symphony of the Americas, Inc.	$18,300	This multi-year after-school project will provide classes at the Bonnet House and concerts at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts.
Karen Dale Wolman	$24,200	This multi-year year-round project will provide online classes with computer access at the Broward County Main Library with readings held at Borders Books and Music.

School Board of Broward County, Inc.	$39,800	This block grant will fund multiple projects throughout the school district to promote effective collaborations among artists and educators.
Total Education and Community Development	$371,600
<hr/> General Operating <hr/>
All Florida Youth Orchestra, Incorporated	$71,100	Music Education Programs held annually include weekly rehearsals at Nova Southeastern University for five Youth Orchestra Divisions.
ARS Flores Symphony Orchestra	$32,600	Support all Broward-based events including four concerts, free master classes, free children's concert and the concerto competition.
ArtServe, Inc.	$99,500	ArtServe is an arts service organization, dedicated to being South Florida's premier provider of programs, resources, facilities and trainings to the arts community.
Association of Performing Arts of India, Inc.	$10,800	Funding will offset portions of operational expenses, artist's fees and costs associated with three major performances to be held between October 2008 - September 2009.
Bailes Ferrer, Inc.	$35,400	Funding will support the annual Flamenco in the Sun Festival, artist's fees, professional development workshops and operational costs.
Bonnet House, Inc.	$67,000	To support the performances, exhibitions, family programs, educational programs and special events offered throughout the year.
Broward Art Guild, Inc.	$16,900	Support programming including 12 visual art exhibits, visual arts education classes and seminars and support for collaborative efforts with other arts and community based organizations.
Coral Springs Chinese Cultural Association, Inc.	$38,200	Provides Broward County residents the opportunity to study and learn Chinese cultural arts, (folk dances, lion dance, music, painting, calligraphy, and craft work) as well as Chinese heritage (language, literature, and history).
Coral Springs Museum of Art, Inc.	$57,200	General Operation Program funding will support annual programs.
Curtain Call Playhouse, Inc.	$38,700	The 2008-2009 season will consist of three main stage productions (43 performances), year-round children's educational; programming, community outreach programs, three summer camps and seven children's productions (12 performances) presented by the children.

Davie School Foundation, Inc.	$37,700	Supports the enhancement of exhibit schedule, historical re-enactments/theatrical productions and an increased number of artist workshops offered on site.
Florida's Singing Sons, Inc.	$70,100	Funds the 33rd year the Music Literacy Education Program for boys ages 8-18. More than 250 boys in four choirs will attend weekly rehearsals and up to two vocal trainings camps.
Fort Lauderdale Children's Theatre, Inc	$65,200	Quality theatrical educational and cultural programming for young people.
Fort Lauderdale Historical Society, Inc.	$71,100	Supports the permanent exhibitions, educational programs, annual events and on-going activities provided to the community each year. Additionally, funding will support the curatorial work and research required to develop the programs and exhibits offered each year.
The Gold Coast Jazz Society, Inc	$50,400	A series of mainstage jazz concerts from October through May with concerts at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts; jazz education programs for school students in the spring of 2009.
Gold Coast Opera, Inc.	$38,700	Six mainstage performances of La Boheme, Aida and Cavalleria Rusticana I Pagliacci; outreach concerts will continue for South Florida senior citizens and tourists.
Inside Out Theatre Company	$30,500	Children's classes and workshops, original musicals for youth, community partnerships and outreach programs to serve at-risk populations and a modest season of equity professional theater at the Museum of Art Fort Lauderdale.
Master Chorale of South Florida, Inc.	$31,900	Three mainstage choral concert presentations at locations throughout Broward County.
Mosaic Theatre, Inc.	$49,700	World Premiere play (In Darfur), along with four plays directly from New York that will challenge, entertain and continue to educate our diverse South Florida community.
Sistrunk Historical Festival, Inc.	$44,900	29th Annual Parade on Sistrunk Blvd in February 2009 and the Sistrunk Festival in the Park at Samuel Delevoe Park in February 2009.
South Florida Ballet Theatre, Inc.	$16,400	The Nutcracker Ballet on December 13, 2008 and Rodeo, a neo-classical ballet set in the American southwest on May 16, 2009.
South Florida Choral Arts, Inc.	$44,600	Fall Concert with Patti Lu Pone, Holiday Concert series, the 7th Annual Choral Festival and Spring Concerts.

South Florida Jazz, Inc.	$47,300	Culturally enriching programs, for entertainment and education including a concert series entitled "Jazz Impressions."
Stonewall Library and Archives, Inc.	$25,300	Writers' workshops, lectures by local and nationally prominent authors, symposia, film series, exhibitions of emerging local GLBT artists and exhibitions of historical materials.
Stranahan House, Inc.	$49,000	Expansion of educational programs, on-site tours, general tours and adult educational programs with lectures and workshops focusing on the house, its collection, and its unique place in Fort Lauderdale history. Off-site programming to include slide and video presentation.
Symphony of the Americas, Inc.	$67,900	Four international performances Performing Arts Including community at the Broward Center for the outreach and educational programming.
Tamarac Theatre of the Performing Arts, Inc.	$22,900	A season of five productions and including musicals and additional activities.
The Women's Theatre Project, Inc.	$15,500	Four main stage theatrical productions and a Behind the Scenes workshop.
Young At Art of Broward, Inc.	$71,100	Young at Art Children's Museum will continue to offer distinct artistic programs to serve the cultural needs of Broward County.
Total General Operating	$1,317,600

Major Cultural Institution

The Broward County Film Society, Inc.	$160,300	Supports the 23rd Annual Fort Lauderdale International year-round outdoor screenings in Hollywood at the programming at Cinema Paradiso, ArtsPark, the Foreign Film Series in Weston and the Family Series in Huizinga Plaza.
Hollywood Art and Culture Center, Inc.	$108,600	A season of visual arts exhibitions and performing arts presentations. Programming will also include after-school and distance learning arts education programs as well as Summer/ Spring camp, workshops, lectures and panel discussions.
Museum of Art Fort Lauderdale, Nova Southeastern University	$301,400	Supports exhibitions and educational programming to benefit Broward County residents and visitors.
Museum of Discovery & Science, Inc.	$301,400	Supports informal science education and cultural planning to support the organizational mission.

Opera Guild, Inc. of Fort Lauderdale	$301,400	Year-Round Activities and programs including Opera Previews, Young Artist Studio Recitals and ArtSong Series and Opera Education Programs.
Total Major Cultural Institution	$1,173,100

Mini-Grant

Mauricio Ferrer Martinez	$2,000	The exhibition of original acrylic art work focusing on the human form including a special educational component with the participation of the Broward County Health Department's HIV and Hepatitis programs.
Myrna Meeroff	$2,000	This project a brass quintet adaptation of Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition, which is a piece of music inspired by art.
Chameleon Musicians, Inc.	$3,000	"Cello & Piano Four" - the Van Eck/Gekic duo will present a concert of the beautiful cello/piano repertoire.
Chameleon Musicians, Inc.	$3,000	"Souvenir": The Amernet Quartet and Tchaikovsky's sextet for strings guest artists will present a program of (Souvenir de Florence) and more.
Chameleon Musicians, Inc.	$4,000	The seldom-played Rimsky Korsakov trio and well known Mendelssohn trio, to be presented by the van Eck/Gekic duo and a guest violinist.
In Harmony Productions, Inc.	$5,000	"Here We Sing" will be a kaleidoscope of musical experiences, highlighting the talents of the members of "in HARMONY" and of many individual artists and performers from the community.
South Florida Musical Guild, Inc.	$5,000	Dance concert to include songs and dance from every genre.
The South Florida Lambda Chorale, Inc.	$5,000	Members of the South Florida Lambda Chorale and local musicians will perform in December 2008 at the Broward County Main Library.
Mini Grant Program will continue to expand after each deadline cycle	$29,000

Regional Organization

Arts Ballet Theatre of Florida, Inc.	$13,900	Supports performances to include Firebird, The Fairy Doll, The Nutcracker and The Spring Ballet Concert.
City Theatre, Inc.	$35,900	Supports the 2008-2009 programs including Summer Shorts Festival, the Short Cuts Tour and the Festival Series -a play-reading series, held in conjunction with the Summer Shorts Festival.

Concert Association of Florida, Inc.	$71,200	Presents internationally renowned classical music at the events) and Parker Playhouse (one event). Broward Center's Au-Rene Theatre (eight This season will feature stellar soloists and four touring orchestras.
Fantasy Theatre Factory, Inc.	$31,800	An exciting season of more than 75 performances or workshops throughout 2008-2009; and provides long-term residency cultural arts workshops to many organizations throughout the county.
Maximum Dance Company	$33,100	Supports the 2008-2009 season consisting of nine performances of four contemporary ballet programs and a children's educational outreach program.
Miami City Ballet, Inc.	$71,200	Season Programming for Broward County in 2008-2009 with the highest quality classical ballet and including four Season Subscription programs of mixed repertory.
Total Regional Organization Investment	$257,100
(91 items)		$3,908,100