Broward Commissioner Appears on Comcast's Newsmakers to Promote NACo and the Large Urban County Caucus

Broward County Commissioner Ilene Lieberman is appearing on Comcast Newsmakers to promote and explain the many benefits and activities that NACo's Large Urban County Caucus engages in on behalf of the public.

"It's beneficial that the general public knows what we're doing and how they benefit from our actions when we come together as one voice representing large counties across the nation," said Commissioner Lieberman.

Comcast Newsmakers in Broward County is a 5 minute segment that airs every half hour on CNN Headline News for two weeks or longer. The segment is scheduled to air beginning September 8th. Newsmakers host Spero Canton asked Commissioner Lieberman about her new role as NACo's LUCC Chair, the responsibilities and priorities of LUCC and about the LUCC Conference set to take place in Broward County in October.
