

Date: February 11, 2008

Contact: Randy Smith, Business, Law and Government Section of the Main Library, 954-357-7436, rasmith@browardlibrary.org

Broward County Commission Libraries Division Presents
Business Seminars at the Main Library
In February, April and May

BROWARD COUNTY, FL – The Business, Law, and Government (BLG) Section of the Main Library is offering business seminars during the months of February, April and May.

Monday, February 18, Berry Paula of the Florida Department of Revenue will present a “Sales and Use Tax Seminar,” 10 am to noon.

Wednesday, February 27, Eric Yankwitt of CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) will present a seminar on “Small Business and Micro Enterprise Opportunities,” 1:30 pm to 4:30 pm.

Wednesday, April 30, Jackie Rule of SBDC (Small Business Development Center) will present a seminar on “What Is An Effective Contract,” 3 pm to 5 pm.

Tuesday, May 27, Jackie Rule of SBDC (Small Business Development Center) will present a seminar on “Responding to Governmental Solicitations RFQ/RFP,” 3 pm to 5 pm.

All seminars are free and will be held in the Bienes Museum of the Modern Book Conference Room, 6th floor, Main Library, 100 S. Andrews Avenue, Fort Lauderdale. For additional information, call the Business, Law and Government Section of the Main Library at 954-357-7439.

The award-winning Broward County Libraries Division, founded in 1974, provides essential quality-of-life community service as well as outstanding customer service throughout Broward County. The Library consists of 37 branches that provide three million items and more than 2,000 computers for public use, and after-school literacy, youth, and teen programs. Its website, www.broward.org/library, includes free online reference and information databases in addition to access about library services, locations, and events that customers access on average 300,000 times a month. The Broward County Library is the ninth-largest library system in the United States, serving more than nine million walk-in customers annually.

###