

Date: April 1, 2008

Contact: Sarah Priester, 954-341-3965, ext. 272, spriester@browardlibrary.org

Broward County Commission Libraries Division Presents
Create A Comic Strip at Northwest Regional Library

BROWARD COUNTY, FL – Teens (ages 12-18) can celebrate Free Comic Book Day at the Northwest Regional Library this May 3rd from 1-3 p.m., by learning the art of the comic strip! Instructor Cory Laub is a comic book artist with over twelve years of experience teaching art and comics design. In this program teens will learn the finer points of cartoon art, the tricks of creating a "gag", and character design. All participants will leave with a comic strip of their own creation, and an understanding of how to proceed in creating more. Jumpstart your comics career here, on Free Comic Book Day! This program is provided by the Stephanie Rubin Memorial Fund.

For more information or to register for the program, please call the library at 954-341-3900, ext. 274.

The award-winning Broward County Libraries Division, founded in 1974, provides essential quality-of-life community service as well as outstanding customer service throughout Broward County. The Library consists of 37 branches that provide three million items and more than 2,000 computers for public use, and after-school literacy, youth, and teen programs. Its website, www.broward.org/library, includes free online reference and information databases in addition to access about library services, locations, and events that customers access on average 300,000 times a month. The Broward County Library is the ninth-largest library system in the United States, serving more than nine million walk-in customers annually.

###