

Tyrone Bryant November Programs

Welcome to Broward County Library's Tyrone Bryant Branch, located in Osswald Park in Fort Lauderdale. Named for Tyrone Bryant, an innovative BCL librarian who was devoted to bringing books and promoting literacy in underserved communities, the library opened in 1980 and was rebuilt and reopened this year.

In addition to programs and special events, The Tyrone Bryant Branch Library also offers a collection of 40,000 books, magazines, DVDs, CDs and more, as well as tutoring and multipurpose rooms as well as 21 public computers and wireless access.

"Sometimes just one book at the right time in the right place can change a life and history as well."

~ Tyrone Bryant, 1942-1988

On Display: Tyrone Bryant's Awards & Memorabilia. Also: November 1-14: National AIDS Awareness Month. Also: November 15-30: National Diabetes Month.
