

Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport February Traffic Update

By the Numbers

- FLL is currently the fastest growing large hub airport in the U.S. (ACI Data Dec 2017)
- Total passenger traffic for 2017 was 32,511,053, up 11.3%. International traffic was up 18.6%. Domestic traffic was up 9.4%
- FLL is the 12th busiest large hub airport for international traffic. (ACI Data Dec 2017)
- 2017 was the 4th consecutive year of double digit growth in international passengers.
- In 2017, FLL ranked 19th in total traffic, jumped Philadelphia (29.6M) and La Guardia (29.4M) (not official)

2018 Off to a Good Start

- January Traffic
 - Total traffic: 3,030,577, up 8.1%
 - Domestic traffic: 2,303,790, up 6.3%
 - International traffic: 726,787, up 14.2%
- February
 - Total traffic: 2,854,417, up 9.2%
 - Domestic traffic: 2,209,160, up 7.2%
 - International traffic: 645,257, up 16.5%
- February Departures up 6.3%
- There were 23 more scheduled daily departures for February 2018 vs 2017.

New Service

- February: Spirit to Columbus
- March: Southwest to Aruba, Spirit to Richmond and Guayaquil (Ecuador), JetBlue to Atlanta
- April: Spirit to Seattle and Cap Haitien (Haiti)
- May: Azul to Recife, Spirit to St. Croix
- June: JetBlue Santiago (DR), Allegiant to Flint (MI)
- July: Southwest to San Antonio
- October: JetBlue to Grand Cayman

More Growth for 2018

FLL ranks 3rd among large hub airports for growth in scheduled available seats from Jan-Jun 2018, up 8.1%, and 2nd for increase in departures, up 7.2%.