

CALL TO ARTISTS

"I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW"

Employee Art Exhibition

Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport

Due: Sunday, February 2, 2025

The Broward County Aviation Department, in partnership with the Broward Cultural Division, is calling all employee artists to submit applications to participate in the "I Bet You Didn't Know" employee art exhibition at the Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport (FLL).

The exhibition will be installed in the T3 – T4 connector and on display for twelve months.

Eligibility

All art forms and mediums will be considered for display as long as the subject matter is appropriate for all airport visitors and the artwork can be exhibited in a safe manner.

Artworks submitted for consideration must be ready to hang/install.

Artworks created by friends or family members of employees are not eligible.

Application Instructions

- Email a completed Employee Exhibition Application Form (PDF fillable form on next page), along with a digital photo of each artwork entry to ARTFLL@broward.org.
- A maximum of four (4) artworks may be submitted for consideration. Each digital photo shall be labeled to correspond clearly with the list of artworks in the application form.
- For video, sound/music, and writing submittals, email the webpage links or Word/PDF files.

For more information, please contact Christina Roldan, Aviation Public Art Project Manager at croldan@broward.org or by phone at (954) 359-6481.
