Call to Order/Roll Call

The meeting called to order at approximately 6:15 pm. Roll call was taken. A quorum was not present. Meeting proceeded and the board members present reviewed the briefings but did not conduct business or cast any votes.

I. Special Presentation: Keep Broward Beautiful Certificate of Appreciation

Certificates of Appreciation and plaques presented by Alphonso Jefferson, Jr., Assistant County Administrator, to BMSD student, T'darius Gibson, and his family in recognition of their Outstanding Dedication to the BMSD Community Cleanups, and Keep Broward Beautiful for multiple calendar years.

2. Approval of Minutes of November 16, 2016

Approval of minutes tabled due to lack of quorum.

3. Safe Streets Phase I & Phase II

Mr. Jefferson provided presentation and map of Safe Streets Improvements, Phase I - Sistrunk Boulevard and Phase II - NW 27 Avenue. The presentation also included County's response to requests for traffic calming studies, Traffic Engineering procedures for installation of speed humps, and process to request a traffic calming study.

4. Wildfire Surveillance Cameras

Mr. Jefferson explained that the County is still collaborating with Broward Sheriff's Office and other agencies to install surveillance cameras along the public streets in BMSD Central County. The cameras would be an additional tool to assist BSO and enhance public safety. It was his hope to request a recommendation addressed to the Board of County Commissioners from the CCCAB but was unable to do so due to a lack of quorum.

5. New In-fill Housing

Patrick Graham, Construction Project Manager, gave a presentation of two programs available under Housing Finance and Community Redevelopment. The first, Minor Home Repair, up to $40,000 for minor repairs for homeowners. The second, New In-fill Housing Project in partnership with ten local non-profits to build 40 new affordable homes in BMSD Central County. Representatives from some of the local non-profits were in the audience. A spokesperson explained that their application process adhered to HUD guidelines and thanked the CCCAB for supporting the County's partnership with local non-profits.

6. Projects Update

No additional updates presented due to lack of quorum.

7. Informational Items

Notice of February 22, Public Hearing on Marijuana Dispensary in BMSD distributed. The BMSD must comply with State mandates the same as municipalities in response to voting results from the November 2016 ballot. CCCAB members and attendees were advised to call 954-357-6634 for more details on public hearing and/or to schedule an appointment with Jo Sesodia, Director of Planning and Development Management. Ms. Sesodia is available to discuss proposed draft ordinance in more detail via phone call or in-person meeting.

8. Next Meeting

Scheduled for May 17, 2017, Roosevelt Gardens Community Center, 2841 NW 11 Street.

9. Meeting Adjourned at approximately 7:39 PM
