Planning of Landlord event:

William King mentioned that the Housing Action Committee will be working on the next Landlord event to expand the list of landlords that the county currently has.

A discussion took place, and it was suggested that the landlords who are currently engaged in the Continuum of Care reach out to friends and business partners to attend and see the benefits of working with the county. It was also suggested to hold lunch and learns.

Nichole Francis with HOSS-D informed the Committee that for this breakfast all Providers and nominated landlords must be present, all individuals recognized work with the Continuum of Care and for recruitment purposes everyone attend with a friend. Nichole Francis informed the Committee that the county is exploring different avenues for landlord recruitment.

William King suggested holding the breakfast at one of the county parks. William stated that the event should take place in November before Thanksgiving possibly the first two weeks of November. The Committee is looking at November 7th to hold the breakfast.
