COLE & BIERMAN

AT THE CROSSROADS OF BUSINESS, GOVERNMENT & THE LAW

MEMORANDUM

TO: VICE MAYOR STACY KAGAN

FROM: ANDREW S. MAURODIS, CITY ATTORNEY

DATE: OCTOBER 22, 2018

RE: ADDENDUM TO OCTOBER 1, 2018 ADVISORY OPINION

---

This is an addendum to my advisory opinion of October 1, 2018, related to an honorarium from the Jewish Federation of North America (JFNA). In your opinion request, you indicated as follows:

“The conference is Oct 21st to the 23rd. They are offering to pay for my air travel, hotel, meals and attendance at the conference. Depending on flights I may have to travel a day or so prior or after and I will pay for anything relating to additional hotel, food, etc...which is not directly related to attendance at the conference. I will be attending the conference and be a speaker on how our community is coping with the tragedy. I have some pressing family matters and my goal is to get back to Parkland as soon as possible. “

You have now advised that “pressing family matters” to which you referred (litigation related to damage to your home) have been resolved and that you intend to stay in Israel another four or five days. You indicate that you will be responsible for the additional costs incurred in changing your flight and that you will also be responsible for all lodging, food and other costs incurred during the additional stay period to assure that you will only be reimbursed by JFNA for the lodging and food (and conference fees) during the three days of the JFNA conference.

Based upon the above I hereby confirm that the opinion I expressed in my October 1, 2018, Advisory Opinion remains unchanged.

Sincerely

Andrew S. Maurodis

City Attorney
