BROWARD DELEGATION ELECTS A NEW CHAIR AND VICE CHAIR

FORT LAUDERDALE, Florida. On Tuesday, November 15, 2022, at a scheduled Public Meeting held at the Broward County School Board Main Office, the Broward Legislative Delegation unanimously elected State Representative Patricia Williams as Chair for the 2023 Legislative Year. Representative Williams represents the newly drawn House District 98. Representative Bartleman called for her nomination during the Tuesday meeting and Representatives Woodson and Hunschofsky seconded the nomination. Representative Williams' district covers portions of 8 cities including Deerfield Beach, Pompano Beach, Lauderdale Lakes, Tamarac, and Margate. Senator Lauren Book stated, "Rep. Williams has a passion for protecting children". Rep. Williams served as the Democratic Ranking Member of the Florida House Education & Employment Committee, and she is an avid supporter and voice for the education and safety of children in Broward County and Florida. She has served as a member of the Florida Children and Youth Cabinet.

During this same meeting, State Senator Jason W. B. Pizzo was unanimously elected Vice Chair of the Broward Legislative Delegation. Senator Pizzo represents the nearly drawn Broward District 37. Senate district 37 covers the entire eastern portion of Broward. Senator Lauren Book called for her nomination during the Tuesday meeting and Representative Dan Daley seconded the nomination. "Senator Pizzo is not new to our county; he has been very active in supporting Broward. I look forward to he and Rep. Williams' leadership".

State Representative Michael Gottlieb was recognized for his leadership of the delegation in the last year as Chair. He was celebrated in song for his birthday by students from his elementary school, Nova Eisenhower.
