Community Newsletter – January 2019

Happy New Year Broadview Park Residents!

The Broadview Park Civic Association intends to use our community assets including the new parks, playground, and community center for fun events suitable for all ages. Plans to inspire togetherness include picnics, neighborhood art projects, community gardening, fitness walking groups, story time for kids, and dog play dates. We cannot do it without you! Thank you for reading the Bee. Take another small step and join us on February 5th, 7PM, at the Sunview Park Community Center for your neighborhood meeting. Let's create together! Email [Broadview Park Civic](mailto:Broadview Park Civic) for more information.

Coming Soon: Broadview Park Little Libraries

Broward County Parks, Libraries, and Cultural Divisions, the Broadview Park Civic Association, and other neighborhood partners are bringing Little Libraries to Broadview Park. Join us for the unveiling Ceremony on National Reading Day, January 23rd at 10AM, in Washburn Park, 1955 SW 50th Avenue, Fort Lauderdale. Little Libraries are family and community gathering spots to read and share free children's and family-oriented books. The 2018 graduates of the Broward Academy are managing the installation of Little Libraries in Washburn and Sunview Parks. Free books in English and Spanish will be available for students and parents to enjoy in the park and take home for literary adventures.
