16 WHEREAS, Part II of Chapter 83, Florida Statutes, known as the "Florida
17 Residential Landlord and Tenant Act" (the "Act"), applies to tenancies of residential 18 dwelling units and sets forth the rights and duties of landlords and tenants;

19 WHEREAS, Section 83.57 of the Act provides that, where there is no written lease,
20 either landlord or tenant may terminate the lease by giving not less than (i) sixty (60) days'
21 notice prior to the end of any annual period when the tenancy is from year to year; (ii)
22 thirty (30) days' notice prior to the end of any quarterly period when the tenancy is from

24 the tenancy is from month to month; and (iv) seven (7) days' notice prior to the end of any weekly period when the tenancy is from week to week;

WHEREAS, Florida Attorney General Opinion No. 94-41 states that an "ordinance

WHEREAS, the Board desires to supplement the notice provisions in Section 83.57;

1 WHEREAS, during the COVID-19 pandemic, there was an influx of people moving
2 to Florida from states with higher wages and costs of living, causing an upsurge in rental
3 rates in Florida;

4 WHEREAS, the Board desires to provide Broward County residents with fair notice
5 of rent increases for residential tenancies; and

6 WHEREAS, this Ordinance shall apply prospectively to new residential tenancies
7 and renewals and shall not be read to supersede the terms of any existing residential
8 tenancies or renewals where the terms are binding on landlords and tenants,

1 Sec. 20-105. Required written notice of termination of quarterly and monthly
2 residential tenancies without specific duration; written notification requirements
3 related to rental payment increases for all residential tenancies.

4 (a) A residential tenancy without a specific duration and in which the rent is
5 payable on a quarterly or monthly basis may be terminated by either the landlord or tenant
6 by giving not less than sixty (60) days' written notice prior to the end of the applicable
7 quarterly or monthly period.

8 (b) Unless notice of a subsequent increase of the rental rate is expressly 9 provided in writing in a lease for a specific term, a residential landlord that seeks to 10 increase the rental rate by more than five percent (5%) at the end of a lease for a specific 11 term or during a tenancy without a specific duration in which the rent is payable on a 12 quarterly or monthly basis, must provide sixty (60) days' written notice to the tenant.
13 Within said sixty (60) day period, the tenant must either:

- 14 (1) accept the increased rent;
15 (2) reach an acceptable compromise on rental amount; or 16 (3) reject the increased rent.

17 If the required sixty (60) days' written notice has been provided and the tenant has not
18 agreed to the increased rent or reached an acceptable compromise, at the landlord's 19 option, the landlord may impose the increased rent or require the tenant(s) to vacate the 20 residence, or pursue any other remedy available under applicable law.

21 (c) Except for the notice provisions set forth in Sections (a) and (b) above, all 22 other provisions of Part II of Chapter 83, Florida Statutes, as such may be amended, shall 23 govern residential tenancies.

1 Sec. 20-106. Enforcement.

2 This article may be enforced by code enforcement officers, including municipal 3 code enforcement officers, and any law enforcement agency having jurisdiction of the 4 area within which the residential tenancy at issue is located pursuant to Section 125.69
5 and Chapter 162, Florida Statutes, or any applicable municipal code enforcement 6 provision.
