

Grant applications should be in narrative format and address each of the attached criteria. Please limit your narrative text to 3 pages. You may attach supporting figures and maps in addition to narrative text. It is recognized that most projects proposed will be conceptual and detailed specifications and calculations are not expected in your grant application. Projects will be considered for funding by the Broward County Water Advisory Board Technical Advisory Committee on August 18, 2023, pending final scheduling.

2023 Criteria for IWRP Grants for Reclaimed Water Construction Projects

Please address narratively each of the following criteria in your IWRP grant application

- A. Project name
- B. Brief description of reclaimed water construction project
- C. Project sponsors willing and able to support a minimum 50% cost share (10 points)
- D. Furthers Broward County Regional Reuse Master Plan (15 points)
- E. Expand existing system to new customers (15 points)
- F. Satisfies immediate customer needs (10 points)
- G. Reduces demand on potable system (10 points)
- H. Provides a quantifiable increase in distributed reuse (10 points)
- I. Integrates existing or planned redevelopment (10 points)
- J. Partners with additional agency in regional initiative (5 points)
- K. Supports Ocean Outfall Legislation (5 pts)
- L. Delivers positive message (5 points)
- M. Provides for timely implementation (5 points)

Deadline for Submission of Fully Completed Grant Applications is August 11, 2023

Deliver to:

Gregory Mount, PhD, Assistant Chief Resilience Officer
Broward County Resilient Environment Department 115 South Andrews Ave.,
Rm 329-K
Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301
gmount@broward.org